PREVENTION THROUGH COLLABORATION

The vision of Investing In Our Youth is to work towards a healthy and safe community environment for all young people to develop their full potential by building strong relationships and valued participation within our communities.

Investing In Our Youth is a not for profit organisation that works across agencies in the South West of Western Australia.

Investing In Our Youth is governed by a steering committee with representation from government and non-government sectors including health, welfare, education and training, and local government.

KEY ACTIVITIES INCLUDE:

- providing research infrastructure support for the child and youth service sector in the South West
- working as an inter-mediatory agency to connect organisations and communities
- supporting prevention and early intervention programs and activities that target children and young people

Investing In Our Youth (IIOY) uses a preventative approach that identifies and addresses priority areas to promote healthy development in children and young people.

IIOY CAN ASSIST YOUR CLUB OR ORGANISATION WITH:

- forming collaborative partnerships
- structuring funding applications
- implementing evaluation procedures
- developing prevention strategies
- providing an organisational umbrella for groups who are not incorporated

IIOY serves on various committees and networks that advocate for the wellbeing of children and young people.

ORGANISATIONS THAT WE ARE AFFILIATED WITH INCLUDE:

- Australian Research Alliance for Children and Youth
- South West Youth Coordinating Network
- Centre for Sustainable Regional Futures, Edith Cowan University
- Bunbury Early Years Network
- South West Research Network
- Telethon Institute for Child Health Research
